IRON SAINTS

JOSEPH was a dreamer. If he were living today they would say: "He was a dreamer who dreamed that he was dreaming". Dreamers are seldom appreciated until they die. Back of every great achievement there is a dream, and a dreamer. But you can't live by dreams alone. Couple hard work with your idealistic visions. Visionary impressions must be crystallized into positive resolves. It is easy to misunderstand a dreamer. Joseph's brothers misunderstood him. He made the mistake of confiding in them. He told them the secret of his heart. He related his dream, in which he was exalted to a position of superiority. They became jealous. Jealousy is the parent of anger. They threatened, cursed, maligned, tortured, and ridiculed him. Finally a plot against his life was instigated. Here he comes walking across the field. His coat of many colors dazzles in the sunlight. His brothers go into a huddle. The quiet, artistic, dignified figure approaches them. Reuben intercedes for his life. They sell him as a slave, to a caravan of Ishmaelites. Little did they expect that he would some day become a Prime Minister. In Egypt he is sold over an auction block. Potiphar's wife tried to frame him. She kept his coat. He escaped with a clear conscience, a pure mind, and a clean character. Her lies put him in prison. There he languished in a dirty, filthy, smelly, hole in the ground. But he came out stronger. The Scriptures tell us that the experience put iron in his soul. By nature he was the sensitive, artistic, sentimental, feminine type, unaccustomed to hardships. His personality lacked something that only suffering could give it. When you are called to go through a hard place, remember Joseph. If the present financial stringency is like a prison experience to you, perhaps its real purpose is to put iron in your soul. That's what we need these days; souls possessing muscles of iron. There are many "tin saints". The world needs more "iron saints". Satan is the god of this world. All of his agencies are being intensified. "We wrestle not against flesh and blood". A wrestler must have strong muscles. Muscles are developed through exercise. Exercise is often the result of suffering. John Bunyan languished in prison. His muscles grew strong. He came out with Pilgrims Progress. Ben Hur suffered as a galley slave. The experience built muscle. He came out to win the chariot race. So let's not complain! Let us see every hardship, as a blessing in disguise.

(SPECIAL NOTE: Only a deep recognition of the fact that the United States Government has apparently been invaded by a blight of Communism in high circles, could make the EDITOR write as he has written in the "Brain Trust" article this month.)

Puffed Wheat

Puffed Rice

Exact size of grains, with the coats unbroken, after they are puffed to eight times their natural size.

The Food That's Shot From Guns

Surprise your folks tomorrow morning with a dish of Puffed Wheat or Puffed Rice.

Serve them this crisp and delicious food—four times as porous as bread. It will melt in the mouth.

Your folks will say, "Why, this is great. Let us have it every morning."

Exploded by Steam

This is the way we make it:

The whole wheat or rice kernels are put into bronze guns. Then those guns are revolved, for forty minutes, in a heat of 550 degrees. That heat turns the moisture in the grain to steam, and the pressure becomes terrific.

Then the guns are fired. Instantly every starch granule is blasted into myriads of particles. Thus the kernel of grain is expanded eight times. Yet it remains unbroken—shaped as before.

Puffed Wheat, 10c—Puffed Rice, 15c

You owe these most delightful foods to Prof. A. P.
Anderson.

He was seeking a way to break up starch granules.

Starch that is unbroken will not digest. And cooking breaks up only part of it. So he sought a way to blast every granule to pieces by exploding the moisture in it.

When he did this, he found that he had created the most enticing cereal foods in existence.

Serve it Tomorrow

Get Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice.

Your folks will like them better than any other cereal food, in existence. Begin tomorrow morning.

CAN WE TRUST THE "BRAIN TRUST"?

By GERALD B. WINROD

NATIONAL GOVERNMENT DETERIORATING

Spiritual Awakening Must Come Soon Or It
Will Be Too Late

PROPHECY BEING FULFILLED

A Grave Responsibility

COMMUNISM plays subtle tricks. But it can take root only in soil that is void of spiritual fertility. Spiritual vitality in a State-organism is a sure antidote to its poison. Socialism is the first step toward Communism. The line of least resistance is from "pink" to "red". That America is in the process of a drastic change of governmental policy, involving the loosening of our very foundations, testifies to the fact that the streams of spiritual life, and moral resistance, are getting low.

As certainly as day follows night, there will come an immediate spiritual awakening in the United States, or we will witness the overthrow of our entire social, moral and economic structure, together with our democratic form of government. The handwriting on the wall is both ominous and unmistakable. A grave responsibility rests upon the Christian forces of the nation. The smoldering conscience of the masses must be stirred into a living flame by a positive and uncompromising declaration of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, or all will be lost.

The Church of Jesus Christ should accept the present challenge without an instant of hesitation. It should gladly shoulder the responsibility. As in the days of Isaiah, let there be travail in Zion. "As soon as Zion travailed she brought forth her children."

A Shadow Over The White House

"Coming events cast their shadows."

Long dark shadows are proceeding from the nation's Capitol. They reflect the drift which is now taking place among the masses. The fact that such a large section of our citizenship, should be hypnotized into believing that a remedy for the nation's ills can be expected by turning the Country first "pink", then "red", represents a colossal betrayal, actuated by Satanic genius.

Let us, as Christian believers, face some very unpleasant facts. The truth sometimes hurts but it is always safest to face it. The exposure and indictment which this article contains has no root in political bias. The writer is without party preference. He is not concerned with politics, as such. His chief interest is the moral and spiritual welfare of his fellow citizens. We are in the midst of a revolution and I believe we should look at the situation with open eyes.

An almost unbelievable change has taken place in the national government since March 4th. The upheaval has been so sudden that its far reaching effects have not yet penetrated the public mind. Under the Roosevelt administration time worn ideals and governmental methods, that have stood the test of several generations, are being suddenly replaced by dangerous experimentation. The people thought they were installing a Democratic administration but they are now being disillusioned. The New Deal has plunged us into a program which is nothing short of a Socialistic experiment.

Introducing The Brain Trust

The present political philosophy of the White House is entirely lacking in stabilizing features. Even the Chief Executive virtually admitted in a recent radio talk that he was a part of a changing order and that his experiments can not be expected to be right more than seventy five per cent of the time. One of his warm admirers, former Ambassador Richard Washburn Child, describes the President's policy in these words: "I was wrong yesterday, let us try this other thing tomorrow."

Mr. Roosevelt has draped about himself an organization of so-called super-intellectuals, known as the Brain Trust, which is presided over by a few college professors. An examination of this group will confirm the fears of American citizens who have a dread of Radicalism in high places.

The Brain Trust overshadows the President's Cabinet. Members of the Cabinet have been given second-rate positions of authority. They have become mere chief clerks, the heads of departments. It is the Brain Trust that knows what the President is thinking and it is the Brain Trust that helps to inspire those thoughts. At the present moment, these scholastic gentlemen are controlling and directing the destinies of 122,775,046 American people. Moreover they have demonstrated their inability to respect and adjust themselves to the great standards which were staked out by those rugged Christian builders of the Americanism that has made our democratic system of government a blessing to untold millions, and a beacon light to the nations of the world.

If they have not already succeeded, they are surely attempting to set up what may be called a Socialistic Dictatorship in Washington. It will be shown that many of their plans resemble the horrible, godless experiments which have taken place in Russia during the last few years.

MOLEY

The Chicago Tribune says: "All Washington is going to school to the professors, learning all about political science and economics. Book stores are selling their books like hot cakes. Who are the members of the Brain Trust? The chief, of course, is Professor Raymond Moley of Columbia University. He occupies a suite of offices at the State Department, surrounded by a bevy of attractive young women secretaries. He is concerned with the whole reach of governmental policies from foreign relations to fiscal affairs, from industrial integration to the incidences of taxation. Some say that he is more Secretary of State than Secretary Hull, more Secretary of the Treasury than Secretary Woodin. He is credited with the conception of a constitutional dictatorship whereby Congress has delegated vast powers to the President to make over the administrative branch of government and reorganize the economic order."

Mr. Moley has stated his philosophy in these words: "We are coming to develop ideas and policies wholly outside of our representative system. Legislatures will then become rubber stamps to pass the measures."

The great achievement credited to Mr. Moley so far, is his discovery of how to get around the Constitution. He hit upon the plan of demanding that Congress forfeit its constitutional power to the President so that the Brain Trust can have a free hand in setting into motion its wild and Radical ideas. In two months he found a way to concentrate in the hands of the President greater executive power than ever before in the history of the nation. That Congress has become a "rubber stamp" to enact legislation prepared by the Radicals, is the frequent complaint of self-respecting Congressmen. We are told that: "It would take strong hands to tear Moley from the Roosevelt breast."

Congressman Hamilton Fish delivered a tremendous indictment against the Brain Trust from the floor of Congress one day last month. Mr. Fish is perhaps the leading opponent of Communism in Washington at the present time. He discussed "the instigators and expounders" of the new Radical legislation and made a painful X-ray examination of Messrs. Moley, Tugwell, Ezekiel and Bullitt.

He said: "Upon their advice the whole financial fabric of our Govern-

SPEAKING OF HOARDING! The Federal Reserve System is reported to have $3,499,234,000 worth of gold in its vaults at the present time. Many people think that the Federal Reserve belongs to the government, the same as the post offices; this is not true. Back in the days of the Wilson administration, Mr. Paul Warburg, a German Jew, a representative of the international Jewish banking concern Kuhn, Loeb, and Company, saw to it that this was not the case. He furnished the root ideas of the System which has now been credited by statesmen with wrecking the financial structure of the nation. And his son James Warburg, is Roosevelt's personal representative at the London Economic Conference in dealing with the bankers of other nations.

WHEN THE Northern Baptist Convention convened last month in Washington, President C. O. Johnson and Dr. M. E. Dodd of the Southern Baptist Convention, called on President Roosevelt. Said they: "Mr. President, we are back of you 96.8%. We can't go the 3.2%."

FROM THE PORTICO of the White House, four musicians recently sang over the National Broadcasting System. President Roosevelt later called one of them on the telephone and disguising his voice said, "That's a fine act you've got. I could sign you up for a regular job." The musician replied, "Who the _____ are you?" To which the President answered, "I am the advertising manager of Cascarets."

THE WORD "SCANDAL" was shouted long and loud in Washington a few days ago when it became known that President Roosevelt's diminutive secretary Louis M. Howe had awarded a contract to a company for 200,000 kits to be used by the workmen of the Civilian Conservation Corps at the various camps which the President has established over the country. Congressmen charged that secretary Howe had wasted $216,000 of tax payer's money by failing to inform himself, that satisfactory kits could have been purchased for only 32 cents each. In examining the salesman who put the deal over with Mr. Howe, Senator Logan of Kentucky said, "So you followed the Biblical injunction: 'He was a stranger and you took him in.'"

IT WAS SHOCKING to the American people to learn last month that one of President Roosevelt's sons had taken up a six week's residence in Reno, Nevada for the purpose of divorcing his wife.

WHEN ROOSEVELT'S Morgan-financed handyman in Europe, Norman Davis, made it known last month that the Washington government was ready to take a hand in European squabbles, William Randolph Hearst shrieked on the front page of his many newspaper: "America's historic policies are in the hands of the wreckers. The great contributions which America has made to peace, to neutrality, to international law, to the respect of nations for each other's rights, are being hacked to pieces by an irresponsible and minor satellite of the House of Morgan, who is clothed for the moment with the high-sounding but dubious status of ambassador-at-large. What he is doing carries, we regret to say, the implication of President Roosevelt's approval. It is incomprehensible! This must stop! Unless some means is found to arrest it—this devil's dance of ignorance and folly—there is no telling what may befall us. The situation is grave! The peril is extreme!"

ROOSEVELT'S Secretary of Interior Ickes is "counting small potatoes" in changing the name of Hoover Dam back to Boulder Dam.

NEW YORK has a noted police toxicologist by the name of Alexander Gettler who analyzes brains and can tell when they are "wet with alcohol". He has shared in 30,000 autopsies. He proved that alcoholic brains were responsible for the Ruth Snyder killing, the Wilmer Stultz airplane smash-up which resulted in the losing of three lives, and many other mysterious tragedies. Let White House Wets take note of the destructive effect of alcohol upon the human brain.

FRANCE HAS ADVOCATED for years that the League of Nations should establish an international police force. The Country's Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour is reported to be working with greater energy in this direction than ever before.

SAID PREMIER DALADIER before the French Senate one day last month, "The moment is not far off when we must act not only in the interest of national finances, but also in that of the Republican regime. . . Mob movements threaten to violate the domiciles of the people's representatives. . . If the means now at our disposal are insufficient I will ask for others from you."

ADMIRAL RICHARD H. LEIGH, Commander-in-Chief of the United States Fleet, issued these instructions last month: "It is directed that all commanding officers take immediate steps to eradicate the undesirable habit of profane and obscene language and to take suitable disciplinary action in the case of each infraction reported."

WHEN MRS. RUTH OWEN was assigned to the position of Ambassador of Denmark she said joyfully: "I am very happy to have been assigned this post because of my father's connection with foreign affairs. When I was a little girl my favorites of all stories were those of Hans Christian Andersen. I always wanted to see the land of Andersen."

MODERNIST SHAILER MATH- EWS of Chicago University's Divinity School has retired in his 70th year after serving the institution for 25 years. He is leaving for the Orient. Good!

REV. CHARLES FRANCIS POT- TER, onetime Baptist, Unitarian and Universalist preacher helped to coin the new phrase Humanism and codify it into a denomination. He preaches regularly in a rented hall in New York. No less than sixty Unitarian ministers have embraced Humanism. Some prominent humanists are Clarence Dar- row, Harry Elmer Barnes, Albert Dief- fenbach and Maynard Shipley. Humanism agrees on at least three things: (1) the universe is self existing, not created, (2) man is part of nature, an evolving animal, (3) there is no such thing as supernaturalism.

ANNOUNCEMENTS are being made that the Presbyterian General As- sembly decided at its annual meeting in Columbus this year that our esteemed contemporary The Presbyterian maga- zine should be abolished. The daily press reports that the real reason is not only financial but also the fact that certain Modernists were eager to si- lence its evangelical voice.

IT IS DIFFICULT to believe that the apostasy of the Y. M. C. A. could have developed so rapidly. Only a few years ago it was a great soul-winning institution. The Literary Digest re- ports that a Jewish Rabbi has been selected to serve on the board of di- rectors of the Cincinnati "Y". We read, "Rabbi Heller will now take his place alongside the young and talented Bishop Henry Wise Hobson of the Epis- copal Diocese of Southern Ohio and to- gether they, with a group of laymen, will plan the program of the local as- sociation."

"BEFORE MAN I AM GUILTY. Before God I am not guilty." These were the words of Robert Wishart, a street preacher of Ottawa, Canada, who was arrested for smashing the inside of a Roman Catholic Temple with a piece of pipe.

ALEXANDER DOWIE founded the Christian Catholic Apostolic Church with headquarters in the unique religious community of Zion City, Illinois. Wilbur Glenn Voliva became his successor. In 1907 Zion's assets were 87 cents; by 1927 they had increased to $10,000,000 and in 1932 were estimated at $6,000,000. Last month Mr. Voliva, the Church and the Town were forced into bankruptcy.

IN AN ATTEMPT to create jobs for men, Dictator Hitler is offering to grant newly married couples 1,000 German marks without interest, repayable at one per cent of the principal monthly, provided the bride gives up a job before marriage. In order to raise the bridal bonus he is making bachelors and spinsters pay a special tax.

IN DRAWING THE COILS of his dictatorship tighter and tighter, Chancellor Hitler is reported to have announced that his Nazis will take over the world famous Biblical drama, The Passion Play, and among other things will select the cast the next time it is presented.

AUSTRIA'S Dictator Engelbert Dollfus opposes every effort to Hitlerize his country. When Brown Shirts were forbidden at a recent parade in Vienna, disgusted Nazis visited second-hand clothing shops and bought up all of the old silk hats and funny head-gears that could be purchased. When Dollfus police began making arrests the Nazis shouted: "There is no law against silk hats!" "Ach, so?" said the police and marched them off to jail.

HITLER'S Dr. Alfred Rosenberg got a cold reception in London while on his "good-will tour" last month. "Down with Hitler! Down with Fascism!" shouted both Communists and Jews. As he was departing the London Times said: "Even if Dr. Rosenberg had remained nine months, instead of nine days, it is improbable that he would have materially influenced British official or public opinion toward Hitler's government. Before talking about good-will abroad it would be best to end the teaching of hatred at home, and before challenging other countries to disarm it would be better to disprove—if it is possible to disprove—that one of the main purposes of Hitlerism is to prepare Germany for a war of revenge."

K. G. DEOLZENBERG, a literary expert of Germany's Nazidom demands that: "All branches of German aristocratic families which have even admitted Jewish blood should be deprived of their titles. The present time is particularly suited for carrying through this project, inasmuch as German social life is being changed completely."

SAYS A NEWSPAPER HEADLINE: "Mussolini Dons Iron Cap, Looks Like Caesar." The press notice continues: "Premier Mussolini blossomed out today wearing a new style iron hat to review the Black Shirt Il duce looked sterner and more Caesarlike in his new millinery which accentuates the thrust of his chin. He frowned often as he sat on his prancing bay while reviewing the youths who marched by him."

Occult Expectancy

By Mr. Charles D. Lamme, Oklahoma City, Okla.

FOR many years prior to my conversion I was a student and teacher of Occult philosophies. When it comes to the inner mysteries of Occultism I am prepared to speak from first hand knowledge. Because I was sincere in my search for truth after being initiated into the inner circle of Theosophy, doubts began to arise in my mind as to the dependability of the system of which I had become a part. I knew that a great supernatural power was at work and I knew that I had touched realms that were more than physical. By an inner intuition, I perceived that the so-called wisdom and power which I possessed was not what it should be, and the question presented itself—Is Occultism right or wrong?

Not being a Christian believer, I did not believe in the personality of Satan. This made it doubly hard, for I had no adequate explanation concerning the source of evil. My learning had also made me hostile to the Bible. Years went by and I remained in a state of confusion, not feeling contented, and doubting if I was really touching the sources of truth.

Finally, in my extremity, I did something I had seldom done before. I went to prayer, and appealed to Jesus Christ in simple faith, and prayed that if I was wrong He should show me my error. A few days later I was converted and all things were made crystal clear. I came to understand that there is only one way and that is through Jesus Christ and His blood atonement. Jesus said: "He that entereth not by the door of the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber." My prayer for freedom from error was gloriously answered.

Satan's working through Occultism seems strange and weird to those lacking spiritual discernment and even shallow Christians who do not know how to "try the spirits whether they are of God". The average man of the street does not know what one is talking about when he speaks of the "Masters" and "Elder Brothers" of the many false religions. These are beings whom I know now to be great demon intelligences. I once revered them as the controlling agencies of the various mystic orders. Some think that you are only spinning a fairy tale when you speak of such things, but I have been far enough to know that they are real. I do not hesitate to say that I believe that Occultism is helping to make preparations to have the False Prophet and the Antichrist received.

There was a special stir in the demon realm when Jesus came to earth the first time and today there is unusual activity preceding His second coming. Remember the Gadarene about whom we read in the eighth chapter of St. Luke. The demon who obsessed that poor, demented man cried out: "What have I to do with thee, Jesus, the Son of the Most High?" Likewise, the demon forces know that Christ is soon to return and they are combining, I believe, to prepare the way for the coming of a Counterfeit Christ—Antichrist.

There is an expectancy spread throughout the world that a Great Teacher is coming very shortly and this is a most significant sign. The Satanic hosts, are now engaged in the super-physical world, in making preparations for the coming of the Man of Sin. The word has gone out from the unseen sources coming from the so-called "Masters," and the teaching is now spread throughout the world. They are creating channels in the minds of men by manipulating psychic agencies for a great expectancy which is but a promise of swift realization. The knowledge of these false religions always comes from their leaders and their leaders profess to get it from the "Masters" or "Elder Brothers". The leaders regard the "Masters" as the guardians of their respective religions. All of the Occult teachings contain prophecy in their sacred writings regarding a coming Leader.

People who put themselves under the control of these excarnate beings, whether through Spiritualism or otherwise, are allowing their minds to become demonized. Yes, they may seem to possess superior wisdom, but it comes from the "Prince of the power of the air", the "Angel of light".

I have heard such men as C. Jinapodasa, a Buddhist residing in Madras, India deliver messages containing secret information outlining the knowledge which had come to them from the unseen realm regarding the coming of a Great Leader. It is true that a Theosophical book entitled, "The Coming World Teacher" has been published. They profess to have obtained their knowledge by clairvoyance. Occult orders have learned their great mysteries by this means, from ancient Chaldea down to the present day. These were known to the alchemists of the Middle Ages. The wisdom was known to the ancient Egyptians, the Buddhists and has now been handed down through Theosophy and Rosicrucianism. Certain Hindu seers say that the world is very near the end of the Kali Yuga cycle which began in 3102 B. C. and, therefore, a great World Teacher must come as the reincarnation of some "Master" of the remote past.

In Persia we learn from the Zamyad Yast that the gods will come to earth in the form of a Great Being who will restore the world.

In Buddhism, the monks tell of the rise in the world of a Buddha who will be a holy and supremely enlightened One. We all recognize that we are living in a transitional age, and back of all these great changes, I believe there are demon agencies working. The master minds of Buddhism claim to have come in contact with unseen beings who have sent out the information that One is coming. A high priest by the name of Enmaggi Sayadaw, has proclaimed the near coming of Budhisatta Maitreya who he says has left the Tusita Heaven and was on earth in 1914 as a small boy.

Mohammedans are speaking of the coming of another prophet of God called Imam Mahdi. According to Professor Pavri they have prepared an empty tomb by the side of the grave of Mohammed in which the body of their coming Lord Prophet is to be placed after his death.

Even the Red Indians of South America are anxiously looking for Quetzal Coatli. Zoroastrians look for the coming of him who they call Sashiyant.

The Javanese, a mystic cult with headquarters in India, wait for Sri Teinfing Lota, or the "Holy White Lotus."

In Tibet the Teshu Lama has commanded the erection of an immense figure eighty feet high, of sheets of copper to be coated over with thin layers of gold, as a tribute and offering of the faithful to the coming One, who hope their pious works will be completed before the arrival of Lord Buddha Maitreya.

The coming Antichrist, who we know from Bible prophecy will appear before Jesus comes, will meet the demands of the Occultists of all shades of thought who are predicting that a God-emperor will manifest himself.

Several of these agree that he will come into the flesh before 1935. The method of his appearing is to take possession of a body chosen by himself and prepared for his use. In other words the Occultists are looking for a man whose spirit will incarnate itself in a human body.

This is a startling and exact forecast of Revelation 13:13 and 17:11, where we read that the spirit of an earlier emperor brought up from the Abyss, steps into the assassinated body of the seventh emperor, yet to come, so making an eighth while he is yet the seventh. In other words, the coming God-emperor about whom Occultism and the prophecies teach, will be a composite being.

The Antichrist's Bible

A CHRISTIAN scholar in Greece writes that he has completed the translation of Gerald B. Winrod's book, "The Hidden Hand" into the Greek language. He regards the exposure of "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion", and the prophetic discussion contained in its pages, as being the only logical explanation for what we now see taking place in the world, including the world-wide moral collapse, the rise and growth of Communism, and the present economic breakdown. He believes that behind the scenes there is a Hidden Hand of men of finance, who have instigated an international conspiracy, and are carrying it through to completion.

The Protocols constitute a series of documents which are said to be the records of a secret order of Jewish financial wizards, who according to the documents, planned the present economic collapse more than a quarter of a century ago. All of the plots that The Protocols set forth, have either been fulfilled, or are now in process of coming to pass. Out of the chaos, the records say that the wizards are going to build a dictatorship based upon the control of gold, directed from one central point, like a World Bank, with their Superman, virtually a Jewish Messiah, in control. The Protocols explain how they have gone about it to pave the way for the coming of their "King of the Jews."

The whole thing fits exactly into the end-time prophecies of the Bible which indicate that the Jews will take the position of dominant power, and that eventually their Counterfeit-Messiah, the Antichrist, whom they as a nation will accept, will emerge from the economic chaos. He will bind the entire western world in the coils of a dictatorship which will not only govern the use of gold, but the freedom of speech and press, as well. It remained for the book "The Hidden Hand" to interpret both The Protocols and their present-day fulfillment in the light of Prophecy. It explains things which can not otherwise be understood.

No wonder the book is having such a tremendous sale!!!

The Greek translator writes these significant words: "It is believed that Macedonian, Alexander the Great, always had under his pillow, the Iliad of Homer, and read it regularly. I believe that every statesman and politician, high officer and any one who holds a responsible position in the society or government of any nation, ought to have always in his pocket, 'The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion'. It would be a valuable guide. According to my opinion, The Protocols embody the highest human wisdom, inspired by the most hideous cunning of Satan, so that they safely can be called "THE BIBLE OF THE ANTICHRIST."

"The Greeks are more fully under the Jewish control than any other nationality. I have published 'The Hidden Hand', but I shall not give away, neither sell one copy, before I mail 100 copies to you, as I am afraid that if the authorities will know of it, they will seize all the books, and will not permit me to send neither to you, nor to distribute and circulate it at all, and may be I shall be sentenced to imprisonment, or to some heavy fine, that I should not be able to pay, and again I should be imprisoned. Please don't be amazed about the above that I am writing to you! In this Country, the Jewish poison, masked and delivered under the cover of Liberalism, has spoiled at the very roots, all the thinking power of our authorities, be they Politicians, or Clerks, Administrators of Government, Lawyers, Judges, Solicitors, Greek Orthodox Priests, or Metropolitans. They fear the light of the Bible and call it a fable. . . .

"As for Hitler's policy and his attitude toward the Jews, in Germany; in my footnote, on pages 23 to 29, of the Greek 'Hidden Hand', I say that I am much suspicious for everything that happens in the world concerning the Jews, because I believe that the Jews can produce any kind of 'Pogroms' upon themselves, for some very well planned reasons, unknown to all the world, and unknown to most of the Jews too, except their leaders at the top who control the gold. When I hear that such persecutions against the Jews are taking place somewhere, always I pity the people and the nation that are considered as the persecutors of the Jews! Because I am driven to firmly believe that there is no persecution against the Jews, if this persecution is not well planned and studied by the head leaders of themselves! . . .

"And I believe, too, that, if there is any kind of trouble to the Jews that is not planned by their leaders, or is beyond of their control, this should be a 'Sign upon the door', for the Jews, to make them think, that their devilish leaders' schemes toward the world's supremacy will at last become the 'Frankenstein Monster' that will grind and devour them during the time of their coming Satanic Messiah, the Antichrist, as you say in your booklet, page 21."

From Bulgaria there has also come a request for permission to translate "The Hidden Hand" into Bulgarian. The request has been granted.

The price of "The Hidden Hand" is only 25 cents, or five copies for $1.00.

THERE IS A MEXICAN ARTIST in the United States by the name of Diego Rivera. John D. Rockefeller awarded him a $21,000 contract to paint a huge picture 17x63 feet on the walls of his new, New York building. A great hubbub resulted when it was discovered that Artist Rivera was painting Lenin's picture with a series of other well known faces. The Rockefellers protested but to no avail. Thereupon they paid the full amount of their contract and discharged him. New York Communists went wild with rage.

Come, Tarry, Go

Condensation of the Annual Baccalaureate Address Delivered by Gerald B. Winrod at the Practical Bible Training School, Binghamton, New York

THE verbs of the English language are words that denote force and imply action. I have selected three of these words as the basis of my simple remarks this afternoon.

The first verb is found in St. Matthew's Gospel 11:28. "COME unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

We turn to Luke 24:49 for the second verb. "TARRY ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high."

The third verb is located in Mark 16:15. "GO ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."

Come

When Jesus ascended into heaven He left the world a Message. He did not build an ecclesiastical system but He did leave us the "Good News" of salvation. The keynote of this Message is the great verb of the Gospel—Come. This word appears six hundred and forty two times in the Bible. To an unsaved world the Man in the Glory is saying Come.

Those of us who bear His name are bidden to Come into the inner circle of intimacy and blessed fellowship with Him. Let nothing be between you and your Lord. Let your consecration be complete, wholehearted and unreserved. Let the personal presence of Christ become more than a mere theory or doctrine; let your beliefs be energized into living experiences with Him. Desire self-crucifixion more than anything else in the world. Seek to know Him in the fullness of the Spirit. During the trying days in which we are living, I am putting more and more emphasis upon the matter of Christian experience in my preaching. It is experiential religion that anchors the soul in the time of storm.

During the present depression we have known of hundreds of instances where idol gods have crumbled. How many men have made money their god and by labor, toil and scheming, have created huge, golden-calves, before which they have prostrated themselves in idol worship! Then came the depression and their gods have fallen like Baal in the days of Gideon. Because such men have had no place to turn, no anchor for their bark during the storm, many have committed suicide. In a middle western city a few weeks ago a prominent business man was shaving in front of a mirror when he slashed his throat with a razor; he fell back dead in the bath tub. An audit of his records revealed that a fortune of a few million dollars had recently slipped through his fingers and his firm had become insolvent.

It is time for professing Christians to begin demonstrating a victorious experience in the present period of unrest. It is up to us to show the world that it needs what we have to offer. And in view of what lies before us, this is an hour in the world's history when believers should cease wrangling over petty things and become actuated by great creative, constructive motives so they can go forth in the power and demonstration of the Spirit. Only the one who has experienced the baptismal power of the Holy Spirit to the point where God has become a living reality can be genuinely equipped for the arduous tasks of Christian service.

Can you pray this prayer with me?—"Our Father, we know that Thou art a consuming fire. Burn, and burn, and burn in our hearts, deep in the inner crevices of our moral natures where only Thou canst penetrate, and destroy within us everything that is unlike thy Son, our Lord. Above everything we yearn for His presence. We desire the destruction of everything that would tend to separate us from Thee. We pray that the dross may be consumed. We have heard Jesus say 'Come'."

I am told that in the city of Copenhagen there is a likeness of the Saviour carved in marble, standing in a cathedral, made by one of the great sculptors of the world. The face is said to be unusually life-like and magnetic. A tourist having heard of the statue visited the cathedral but was disappointed because the face seemed to lack the qualities that he had anticipated. A guide told him to go nearer the statue. Not until he had approached very closely could he see the hidden charm. The sculptor had purposely carved the lines on the face so that the genuine beauty could not be seen until one came close to it. There is a wealth of meaning in this illustration. The Presence of Christ does not become real until the soul comes into the inner circle through wholehearted consecration and self-abnegation.

Tarry

The second step is to Tarry. Pray. Commune with Him. Said the Psalmist, "Be still and know that I am God". Jesus tarried constantly in the days of His flesh. We have all been inspired by those passages which tell us how it was His habit to withdraw from the multitudes and go alone for prayer. If He needed to tarry, how much more ought we helpless mortals to pray!

See Him that tragic night in the garden of Gethsemane! The sweat that bathed His brow was blood. A physician will tell you that only one thing can make a person sweat blood and that is a ruptured, a torn, broken, heart. The heart of the Christ was actually, physically broken. There is such a thing of loving so deep and feeling the emotional impact so terrifically that the physical organ shatters, gives way. He died of a broken heart. This is the way Christ loved sinners. Had there been but one sinner in the world His heart would have broken for that one. His atonement is rooted in love. "God so loved that he gave." In Gethsemane Jesus was fulfilling Psalms 69:20, "Reproach hath broken my heart".

Let us again hear His cries as they pierce the night air. "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless not my will, but as thou wilt". It was in Gethsemane that Jesus fought and won the battle of Calvary. What we saw on the cross was the after effect of what took place in the Garden. When I meet people who say that they have terrible struggles in their Christian experience and respond to temptation in spite of their best efforts; when they tell me that the cross of Christian living is heavier than they can bear, I know that it is invariably because they do not have enough Gethsemane.

To His disciples Jesus said "Tarry until ye be endued with power". The root word for power in the original Greek is "dunamis". It is the phrase from which we get our word dynamite. It literally means "miraculous power." We learn from this verb that there is a place to reach under the anointing of the Holy Spirit where the miraculous working forces of the Gospel may be placed at our disposal. This word tarry links us with the explosive elements, the spiritual dynamics, which come only through the manifestation of spiritual energies.

It also brings to our attention the great Christian grace called patience. Moses demonstrated this quality. He tarried eighty years getting ready to do forty years' work. What if Moses had become impatient about the seventy ninth year? There would have been no Moses, that's what! There would have been no law-giver to climb the hill of Sinai and bring down a decalogue to become the foundation of all subsequent law and jurisprudence. Instead of being the law-giver, he would have probably been the fourteenth mummy, on the nineteenth shelf, in the northwest corner, of the third floor, of King Tut's tomb.

Saul of Tarsus was smitten from his beast. He saw the Lord in resurrection glory. And immediately he retired into the desert for three years getting ready to be Paul the Apostle to the Gentiles. He said, "I conferred not with flesh and blood".

Look at Peter on the day of Pentecost when there were three thousand conversions at the close of one sermon. Do you know the secret of the success of Pentecost? It was not when the rugged disciple stood before that great concourse of people. The victory of Pentecost was won back in the upper room where one hundred and twenty believers had been tarrying in prayer.

All great battles for God are won in the heavenlies. Remember the word of the Lord to Zerubbabel, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, sayeth the Lord of hosts".

It is significant, Senior Class of the Practical Bible Training School, that you have been tarrying during your course of study exactly the same length of time that Paul tarried in the desert. You have completed a three year course of training. You have been given good tools with which to become efficient workmen. Many times I have noticed II Timothy 2:15 on the wall of your assembly room, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed". But not only do you have good mental equipment, but you have been given an opportunity on this beautiful campus, to become equipped with those more powerful weapons which come only through seasons of prayer and hours of meditation on the deep things of God. You have been schooled in the technique of "spiritual discernment".

I shudder to think of the thousands of less fortunate students over the United States who will go out of their respective schools this year, deceived and betrayed by modernistic and atheistic teachings. And the tragedy is intensified by the fact that many of these students, thus betrayed, are now leaving their schools to enter pulpits and to begin various lines of so-called Christian work.

Go

Graduating Class, you have put first things first. You have followed the order of our studies this afternoon. You have come, you have tarried and now you are ready to go. I have known of people to try to go before they had come. Some have tried to go before they tarried. They have had zeal for Christian service, but not according to knowledge. Firebrands burn out quickly and are more likely to do more harm than good.

I am thinking of the barber who immediately after conversion, while under the spell of a great wave of enthusiasm, desired to try to preach. A man took a seat in his barber chair to get a shave and instead of trying to give him a good shave the new convert thoughtlessly smeared the lather over the customer's face, in his mouth, under his chin, through his hair and down on his necktie. Grabbing his razor he proceeded to strop it violently and while doing so he asked the customer if he was ready to die. The customer is reported to have jumped out of the chair shouting, "Help, murder, murder!" The barber had zeal but not according to knowledge.

Students of the Senior Class, you represent a great investment. Some of your parents and friends have investments in you because they have helped to pay your way through three years of training. Your President and your Teachers have an investment in you. I have an investment in you, because during the last year, I have made real sacrifice in working with the School officials in order to make it possible for the Institution to go forward. I am frank to tell you, that we all expect eternal dividends on our investment. We expect that heaven will be richer because of souls being saved through your efforts. And we will share your reward with you. The world needs your kind of Christian leadership. Other schools are devoted to tearing down the Old Faith and belief in the Word of God, but you, being more favored, will go out rooted and grounded in the Truth. What dignity there is attached to your calling! You are called to be co-workers with the King of Kings.

Christian believers are expected to be "a going concern." Sometimes our talents may seem small and our labors ineffective but God honors the effort. We are only expected to do our best. Imagine a little magnet; it can scarcely lift a pound. Attach it to a dynamo and it can lift a ton. Our lifting power is determined by our relationship to the great Dynamo of heaven. The important thing is that all of our efforts shall be in parallel with the sovereign will of God.

David, what is that in your hand? It was a sling and a few pebbles. David gave the sling and those stones to the Lord, and he killed Goliath.

Lad, what is that in your hand? It was some bread and a few pieces of fish. He brought that food to the Master, and the Lord fed five thousand.

Man, what is that in your hand? It was the jawbone of an ox. He gave that jawbone and his right arm to the Lord, and he destroyed a thousand Philistines.

Let us place all that we possess at the disposal of our Master today, and with renewed consecration and devotion to His program, go out from this place to be more efficient workmen than we have ever been before.

REVIVAL

By Rev. Irvin E. Smith, San Jon, New Mexico

"WILT thou not revive us again; that thy people may rejoice in thee?" Psa. 85:6.

The Church is standing in need of a revival. There are three vital points to be considered. A genuine revival along these three lines would effect lasting results.

I. A Revival of Vision

We are sorely in need of a revival of vision, of the worth of a human soul. It seems today, perhaps as never before, that the words of the poet are true: "If men go to hell who cares?"

It is so natural for us to think of all the multitudes that are out of the realm of safety as being strangers, in whom we are very slightly, if at all, interested. But have you stopped to think that it is your kinfolks and my kinfolks who may help to populate hell? Your own brother or sister, father or mother, son or daughter; your own flesh and blood. Yes, there is a hell, Modernism to the contrary, no matter.

I am sorry to say, but many preachers seldom ever mention hell, and if they do it is in such an uncertain manner as to lack force and leave their audiences full of doubt. Many have left it altogether out of their preaching and theology. And we are today, beginning to reap some of the harvest, in the present crime wave in the world, and the lukewarmness and lethargy, which exists in the Church.

I feel that the reason many are not more concerned about their own souls is because we as Christian people are not enough in dead earnest. Let someone go down the street speaking in an ordinary tone of voice saying, fire, fire, fire, and no one will give him much attention. But if one comes down the street running at full speed and shouting at the top of his voice, Fire! Fire!! FIRE!!! he will get attention and action on the people!

We should be aroused to our need. Some call us pessimists because we dare to admit that we are living in a time of awful spiritual declension. But it's a fact, whether we have the courage to admit it or not. It is a fact that the world is becoming more and more steeped in sin. Evil men are waxing worse and worse. Unsaved people do not have the reverence for God, nor the respect for the house of God and Christian people, that they once had. Moreover, Christians themselves do not have the zeal they once had; in fact there is an awful unconcern and lethargy engulfing the Church today.

We need our vision revived concerning our responsibility. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus said of Christian people: "Ye are the light of the world." "Ye are the salt of the earth." My friend, has it dawned upon you that God is holding you responsible in a measure, for the salvation of souls? Read Ezekiel 33:1-8. In Genesis 4 we have some very pointed questions put to Cain. "Where is Abel thy brother?" "What hast thou done? The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground." Oh, what if such questions were put to us at the Judgment Bar of God! "Where is thy brother?" "What hast thou done?"

II. A Revival of Power

How many of us recall the grand old "camp-meeting days"? Oh, how the Holy Spirit was upon those old sainted mothers and fathers! How those faithful ministers would preach while tears of mingled joys and sorrow would flow down their faces! And how sinners would cry to God for mercy! And at the close of the sermon such rejoicing, because many souls had been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

"But," someone says, "why do we not see like results today? We have more funds now, better church houses, better educated preachers, and more enlightenment among the populace. And less moral and spiritual results."

We find an answer in the language of Holy Writ. "Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalves, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent." Rev. 3:17-19. We have been victimized by too much negative preaching.

We need to be reminded of our dependence upon God. I believe the key to the situation is to be found in the fact that we have forgotten our utter dependence upon God. Jesus informs us that without Him we can do nothing. (John 15:5) Again in Zech. 6:4, God tells us that it is "not by might nor by power; but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." Solomon tells us to trust in the Lord with all our might and lean not on our own understanding. (Prov. 3:5)

III. A Revival of Prayer

I fear we have forgotten the effectiveness of prayer. Prayer, earnest prayer, persistent prayer, and prevailing prayer, is the thing that will bring the revival we need, and get us out of our spiritual famine. Prayer moves the Hand that moves the universe. Elijah prayed EARNESTLY. I recall reading in a leaflet published by the Great Commission Prayer League: "In a certain town there had been no revival for many years. The church was nearly run out. The people were unconverted. Spiritual desolation reigned. There lived in the town an old blacksmith, who stammered so greatly in his speech that it was painful to hear him attempt to talk. At work in his shop his mind became greatly exercised about the condition of the church; his agony was so great that he locked the door and spent the afternoon in prayer. He prevailed with God. He then obtained the reluctant consent of his pastor to appoint a meeting, but with no hope on the preacher's part of any attendance. But the room was more than filled. All was silent for a time until one sinner broke out in tears and begged, if any one could pray, to pray for him. Others followed, and it was found that persons from every quarter of the town were under deep conviction—all dating their conviction from the hour the old man was praying in his shop. A powerful revival followed. This old stammering man prevailed and he had power with God."

On another occasion: "Several members of Jonathan Edward's church had spent the whole night in prayer before he preached his memorable sermon, 'Sinners in the Hands of an Angry God'. The Holy Ghost was so mightily poured out, and God so manifest in holiness and majesty during the preaching of that sermon, that the elders threw their arms around the pillars of the church and cried, 'Lord, save us, we are slipping down to hell'."

Let us remember we are praying to an omnipotent God. Prayer is not omnipotent, but God is. Nothing brings as much return for the amount invested as does prayer. It has been said that if one utterly believing person should arise the history of the world might be changed.

Satan dreads prayer. If you want to hold the devil at bay, fall upon your knees. If Satan cannot defeat us in our prayer life he cannot defeat us at all. "The Devil trembles when he sees the weakest saint upon his knees." The church referred to in the Revelation, that lost its Christ, was full of good works. Satan smiles at our toil, mocks at our wisdom, but trembles when we pray.

Persistent prayer is the thing that is going to bring results in this hour of need. Jesus gave us many lessons on the importance of importunity in prayer. The story of the unjust judge and the widow should inspire us to keep seeking God in prayer until a mighty revival is precipitated. The man asking for the three loaves should encourage us to ask as never before, to seek until we find, to knock and not take "no" for an answer. Nothing lies outside the reach of prayer that does not lie outside the will of God.

We need a revival, of vision, of power, and of prayer. We feel like joining in with Habakkuk in his prayer, "O Lord, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy." 3:2.

FORMER UNITED STATES SENATOR Moses says, "Indeed, it is a mad world. On the very day when Geneva was attuned to peace, when Italian Premier Benito Mussolini's pacific proposals were poised on the tip of the pen of four signatory nations, when eager responses to President Roosevelt's circular note to the chiefs of state of the world were heaping up in Washington, on that very day Japan's armies were pounding at the gates of Peiping and the ancient Chinese capital was offering no resistance."

BRAIN TRUST.

ment is to be overturned—our traditional policy discarded, our currency debased."

The truth is, a revolution in American government is being staged, with little or no regard for our fundamental document, the Constitution. The Baltimore Sun says: "The Roosevelt administration is nearing the edge of pronounced left wing Radicalism, so pronounced that it may mean little less than an economic and social revolution."

EZEKIEL

We will ask Congressman Fish to introduce the second member of the Brain Trust, a powerful Jew by the name of Mordecai Ezekiel, who is known to be one of the authors of the revolutionary farm legislation which Congress was forced to enact, after White House pressure had been exercised upon the duly elected representatives of the people. Mr. Ezekiel has spent considerable time in Soviet Russia and it is charged that his farm bill resembles the Red Five Year Plan in some of its basic features. There is fear among farmers that they may eventually be lined up like so many Russian peasants.

Concerning this "pink," if not "red," farm legislation, Mr. Fish says: "The Farm bill, which the President recommended as a noble 'experiment' was explained to Congress by Prof. Mordecai Ezekiel, of the Wallace-Tugwell agricultural department, formerly the United States Department of Agriculture, as follows:

"The price for each month may be conceived as represented by a small black ball suspended above the line for its own date at the height of the average price for that month, and as far over from the right to left as indicated by the supply for that month. There would necessarily be only one ball for each month. These balls, however, would all be very close to the demand surface, a little above it for those months when the actual price was higher than the price as shown by the correlation formula and a little lower for the months when the actual price was a little below the estimated price. In general, however, it would be seen that the demand surface approximated the position that these prices occupy as they were thus suspended through space and time."

"How simple! If prices do not perform according to the chart, the consumer can be blackmailed.

"Certainly this explanation is so simple that anyone should comprehend it, but fearing that it ought to be further elucidated, Senator Huey Long insisted on reading another section of Professor Ezekiel's plan, which dealt with 'factor's X from the first to the tenth power', with a 'regression equation' showing as fine an assortment of logarithms as a hog raiser ever looked at. When we dissect this bill, from an American standpoint, its Socialistic proposals can be plainly seen and if enacted will plague us for years to come."

TUGWELL

The third member of the Brain Trust is Professor Rexford G. Tugwell, a man who is described in the Chicago Tribune as being a "Liberal who is content to experiment in the reconstruction of economic institutions". He is one of the editors of the New Republic, the most popular journal of Socialistic-Liberalism published in the United States.

Congressman Fish says: "Professor Tugwell is quite a book agriculturist. He has made a study of agriculture and knows all about the farmers' plight, so he says. He is especially informed on the Russian Gosplan, and if the Communist publications are correct, as early as January 1930 Mr. Tugwell advocated the Bolshevik plan for the United States. We have only to read the reports from Moscow to know how effectively this plan works in Russia at the point of the bayonet."

The Soviets have the most abnormal economic system in the world. Authenticated reports from Russia tell of unspeakable suffering. I saw a letter a few days ago written by a Christian citizen on the interior, in which he told of the persecution that Christians are being compelled to endure. The situation rivals the sufferings of the early Church under Nero. This gentleman told how that six hundred Christian men from his community had been forced to leave their families and were driven to Siberia like cattle, for no crime, except that they had named the Name of Christ; half of the company died on the way due to exposure and the lack of food. He described the awful starvation among the rank and file of people. He said that only the day before, he had paid the equivalent to four American dollars per pound, for the diseased flesh of a horse, and a dollar a pound for its intestines. The bones and hoofs were also purchased and beaten into flour from which a kind of gravy, or paste, was made.

But let Congressman Fish finish with his examination of Mr. Tugwell: "He is a coauthor with Stuart Chase (another Socialist) and Robert Dunn (a Communist) of the book, Soviet Russia in the Second Decade, and this same Stuart Chase (Socialist friend of Tugwell) is the author of the book, A New Deal, in which he says that 'in a way it is a pity that the road to revolution is temporarily closed.' We find that Professor Tugwell has for years trained with the Socialists of the nation. He was professor of economics at Columbia University; contributing editor to the Socialistic New Republic magazine, more or less a semi-official organ of the Socialist Party; a member of the advisory board of the people's lobby, a Socialistic movement set up by John Dewey, another Socialistic professor of Columbia University; and is on the board of directors of Manumit Associates, Inc., a Radical enterprise partially supported by the American Fund for Public Service (Garland Fund), the spending of which fund was in the hands of a committee of Socialists and Communists, who doled it out for Socialist and Communist activities. Tugwell has been a member of several committees of the American Civil Liberties Union, an organization specializing in the defense of Communists and Radicals of all types. He has written on Socialism, having collaborated in Socialist Planning and a Socialist Program, while he wrote Experimental Control of Russian Industry, and Soviet Russia in the Second Decade. He believes there is 'no difference between Russians and Americans.'"

BULLITT

People possessed of good memories were surprised to learn that Mr. William Bullitt, who caused President Wilson and the government so much anxiety following the World War, had been given a position on the Brain Trust. Before glancing at his past record, we will request Mr. Fish to say a few words about this member of the "Professoriat": "William Bullitt is accredited by Mr. Tumulty with having brought about the physical collapse of that great Democratic President, Woodrow Wilson. He was accused recently by our distinguished Senator Arthur Robinson of representing 'someone' in trading off the American people while in Europe. I am informed that he married a Communist sympathizer; in fact, the wife of my classmate at Harvard, John Reed, the American hero of Communism, and is now buried in Moscow near the tomb of Lenin. This is the man who is an Assistant to the Secretary of State."

Time, a weekly magazine, which has a reputation for dispensing only dependable news, had this to say about our subject, following his appointment to the Brain Trust: "In February 1919, Diplomat Bullitt, with Journalist Lincoln Steffens, was entrusted with a confidential mission to Russia to make peace overtures to the Soviet Government. Col. House, President Wilson and Prime Minister Lloyd George secretly sponsored this delicate Allied enterprise. Mr. Bullitt spent a week in Moscow and came to terms with Dictator Lenin. On his return to Paris his peace proposal, involving recognition of the Bolshevik regime, was suddenly tossed into the waste basket by Messrs. Wilson and Lloyd George.

"Young Bullitt bitterly swallowed his pride until May when he impulsively resigned from the U. S. Peace Commission after President Wilson refused to give him an audience. An admirer of Lenin, he predicted that the Reds would oversweep all Europe. He denounced the Versailles Treaty as a breeder of war hates, flayed the Polish Corridor settlement, warned of an early end to Reparations. Said Bullitt: 'I am going to the Riviera, lie on the sand, kick my heels in the air and let the world go to hell.'"

After that the curtain dropped on the Bullitt diplomatic career until Mr. Roosevelt picked him up a few months ago and clothed him with international power.

WARBURG

Last, and perhaps most important of all, we call attention to another Jewish member of the Brain Trust by the name of James Warburg. There are several other lesser lights in the group but for the present we are confining ourselves to a study of only Messrs. Moley, Ezekiel, Tugwell, Bullitt and Warburg.

As these words are written, it is being announced through the daily press that Attorney Pecora, and his Senate Investigating Committee, who were so merciless in dealing with J. P. Morgan, will begin an interrogation into the affairs of Kuhn, Loeb and Com-

The Wets Are "Slopping Over"

By William D. Upshaw, Atlanta, Georgia—
Presidential Candidate of the Prohibition Party, 1932

CUMULATIVE evidence that the WETS are "slopping over" in their premature BEER PARADE, is found in a thousand ways.

BEER! BEER! BEER!

The signs greet your eyes and your "nose" everywhere you turn. It is almost impossible for a sober person to find a restaurant, drug store, grocery store, or hotel where the "Beer On Ice" sign is not in the front window.

A letter from California, from a man who has believed that "liquor is a good thing in its place" says in substance: "It seems to me that the Wets are blocking their own game. The more beer they give the people, the less inclined they will be to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment. And in that way Beer may be a blessing in disguise."

Of course the Wets never intended this! They are simply living up to their habit of allowing their depraved appetites and their greed for gold to make them trample the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES and run roughshod over every ideal of national decency.

This unconstitutional inundation of BEER is frightening some Wet leaders almost out of their wits. They know they are selling in all wet states and in some states supposedly dry, the very kind of beer that was being made by over seventeen hundred breweries when they were put out of business by the Eighteenth Amendment; they know that this INTOXICATING BEER constituted about 90% of the business of the 177,790 saloons that were closed by National Prohibition, and therefore, the widespread selling of this same beer, not only in beer joints but stores, restaurants, filling stations and what not, will increasingly disgust the plain church-going, God-fearing masses of America and that a moral revolution is bound to soon come and tear down their "WET PLAYHOUSE".

Straws in the Wind.

Here are some of the straws in the wind which shows the trend of the public mind: In Wheeling, W. Va., my secretary, his wife and I, went into the E-Z Restaurant for Sunday dinner, saying to the bright girl who served us, "This is the second time we have come in here because you don't advertise BEER."

She smilingly replied: "Yes, we don't serve it and we are not going to serve it. We were afraid at first that our policy would hurt us, but it seems to have helped us. You three make thirteen who have told us today that they have come in because we do not advertise and serve Beer."

And here in Zanesville, Ohio, where these words are being written, one cafe sign reads: "WE SERVE NO BEER, WE HAVE CLEAN ICE COLD SOFT DRINKS AND GOOD FOOD."

And the friends of prohibition ought to patronize only such places that do not sell beer. In other words VOTE DRY — BUY DRY!

Debauching the Capitol

Not only has this wet spasm debauched our national capitol with more than a thousand beer joints, but the amber fluid of glaringly unconstitutional alcoholic content is splashing daily over the capitol building itself—with Congressmen and Senators who swore to defend the Constitution without mental reservation or purpose of evasion, rushing headlong to the spigots of beer like swine to their swill, saying in their Bachannalian eagerness and shocking irreverence; "To hell with the Constitution: WE WANT BEER."

Such men, whose wanton defiance of law and decency makes a "scrap of paper" out of that part of the Constitution that was wrapped in prayer and enacted by due governmental process—yea, that was carried into the Constitution by the most overwhelming majority that ever carried an amendment into our organic law—these lawmakers, I say, will have no right to complain if the Red Flag of Communism plants its dirty defiance on the plaza where Presidents take the oath of office, and shakes its Soviet fist at the regnant glory of the Stars and Stripes!

When lawmakers become lawbreakers, and like Belshazzar and "a thousand of his lords", drink forbidden wine in holy vessels from, and in, the very Temple of God, they are opening the gates through which the army of destruction may march any day with the banner of anarchy and the slogans of death.

"Mene, Mene tekel upharsin," written by the hand of God on the Babylonian wall, making kings and lords quake and tremble amid their drunken revelry, will soon be written upon the most beautiful Capitol Dome in all the world unless these drinking, lawbreaking lawbreakers are scourged from our outraged temple of Patriotism, even as Christ scourged the irreverent money changers from the temple in Jerusalem.

BRAIN TRUST.

pany June 26th. I will be very much surprised if the general public is made conversant with the inner secrets of this Jewish banking concern. It has been charged by Congressman Louis T. McFadden that this firm virtually controls the United States Treasury through its representative on the Brain Trust, Mr. James Warburg.

Mr. McFadden says: "We know from assertions made here by the Honorable John N. Garner, the present Vice President of the United States, that there is a condition in the United States Treasury which would cause American citizens, if they knew what it was, to lose all confidence in their Government. That is a condition which Roosevelt will not have investigated. He has brought with him from Wall Street, James Warburg, the son of Paul M. Warburg. Mr. Warburg is the head of the Bank of Manhattan Co. Mr. Warburg, alien born and the son of an alien who did not become naturalized here until several years after this Warburg's birth, is a son of a former partner of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., a grandson of another partner, a nephew of a former partner, and a nephew of a present partner. He holds no office in our Government, but I am told that he is in daily attendance at the Treasury and that he has private quarters there. In other words, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. now control and occupy the United States Treasury."

James Warburg is the man that the President sent to London "in a special capacity as Financial Adviser" to represent the United States government at the World Economic Conference.

It will be recalled that another Jew, Leon Trotsky, who worked with Lenin in bringing about the overthrow of the Russian government, fomented all manner of uprisings and meetings of discontent and rebellion in New York prior to his departure for Europe. Mr. McFadden declares that Kuhn, Loeb and Co. financed Trotsky's activities, paid his passage to Europe and "placed a large fund of American dollars at his disposal in one of their branch banks in Sweden so that through him Russian homes might be thoroughly broken up and Russian children flung far and wide from their natural protectors."

Mr. Paul Warburg, the father of James, a German Jew by birth, is an official of Kuhn, Loeb and Company. He was virtually the creator of the American Federal Reserve System, the misuse of which is blamed by many of our statesmen for the economic downfall of the United States and, as indicated above, his son is now a member of Franklin D. Roosevelt's inner-circle.

A New York Times report from the London Economic Conference brought this bit of news: "George L. Harrison, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, Montague Norman, governor of the Bank of England, and Clement Moret, governor of the Bank of France, carried on today the talks which James Warburg, adviser to the United States delegation, began yesterday."

Should Not Establish Diplomatic Relations With The Reds

Atheistic Moscow must be overjoyed that so many of its type of men have gotten into the high places of our so-called Christian government. It is constantly rumored that the Roosevelt administration expects to establish diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia, a departure of which Wilson, Harding, Coolidge or Hoover refused to be guilty. The Brain Trust is composed of the kind of men whose nostrils would be incapable of detecting the filthy odor of Communistic taint.

They could hardly be expected to see anything morally wrong in the Red attempt to abolish all forms of religion. They are so warped in their intellects that it would be difficult for them to locate flaws in the insane economics of the Soviet System. It seems to mean little to them that Moscow is right now directing attacks upon our own nation for the purpose of tearing us down by promoting internal strife and anarchy.

The Saturday Evening Post said in a recent editorial: "Spokesmen for the Soviets have declared that the continued existence of their form of government, even in Russia itself, depends upon revolutions in other great countries, including the United States. They have proclaimed their intention to use every possible means to bring about such overthrows, and they even have avowed as a doctrine that no agreement made or signed by them with a nonrevolutionary government can have any binding force. Surely Great Britain's long and exasperating experience of grief with Soviet Russia must make us stop, look and listen, unless we are utterly incapable of learning. It would be folly for the new administration to recognize Russia."

This kind of logic is likely beyond the comprehension of the narrow minds which make up the Brain Trust. IT WILL THEREFORE REQUIRE TREMENDOUS PRESSURE ON THE PART OF ORGANIZED PUBLIC SENTIMENT TO KEEP THEM FROM TYING THE AMERICAN PEOPLE UP WITH THE ANTI-GOD SYSTEM OF THE REDS, BY ESTABLISHING OFFICIAL AND DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS.

Prohibition

Could such a group be expected to contribute one whit to national morality? Could they realize the importance of Sobriety? Are their minds capable of functioning in such a channel? Is this the kind of mentality that usually expresses interest in behalf of moral reforms? Is it any wonder that beer was unloaded at the White House as soon as the administration had succeeded in pulling the teeth of the Volstead Law?

These are the kind of men who are determined to rob America of the moral and economic advantages of the Eighteenth Amendment. No matter that Prohibition closed over 170,000 lecherous spawns of iniquity known as "old saloons"! No matter that Prohibition elevated the living conditions of the poor and laboring classes to the highest level ever known in the history of the Country! No matter that the restraint placed upon alcohol helped to eliminate economic waste and thereby produced an unprecedented reign of prosperity! The men who now surround the President are blinded to these blessings. They seem to have no appreciation of moral values.

The distinction is too keen for such clumsy minds to grasp. And because they cannot understand the practical and idealistic worth of the Eighteenth Amendment, they demand its destruction. Mr. Moley has said: "I feel no call to remedy evils. Social workers make me weary. They have no sense of humor."

Certainly every thoughtful citizen who appreciates the value of moral standards, and Christian principles in matters of national government, will realize that there is real cause for alarm. But after all, the Brain Trust did not insinuate itself upon the American people of its own accord. It has come into existence as a reflex action resulting from the processes of moral disintegration which have been going on among the masses for several years.

Revival Needed.

The Brain Trust is located at the top of the government, but the cause of the disease is further down. In fact, the cause reaches to the very foundations, the ultimate unit, the individual citizen, of the nation. We are witnessing a dying at the top, but the trouble is at the roots.

There must come a moral and spiritual rebuilding from the ground up. Our foundations are not rooted in politics and economics. Beneath every structure of good government there is an iron base of morality. A nation's cohesive quality is to be found in its spirituality. The greater values of life and government are spiritual. There is imperative need of moral regeneration. America's sickness is first spiritual, then physical. If we are wise we will seek spiritual readjustment. We have been able to go as far as we have, only because of the spiritual momentum of the past. Democracy is the strongest and purest form of government in the world when the people are good, but it is the weakest and most dangerous when it becomes smitten by mass immorality. "Righteousness exalteth a nation but sin is a reproach to any people."

And this is exactly the need that the Gospel is designed to meet. Our pulpits and Christian testimony have been weakened by compromise and negation. But let us set in motion every ounce of spiritual energy that we have left. Let us get back to the great spiritual verities and the old Faith. Let every preacher, every layman, every professing Christian, become energized with new Gospel fervor and enthusiasm! Let revival fires be lighted across the continent! Let there come a great stir in the hearts of the American people toward God! Then, and not until then, every problem, whether it be political or economic, a blight of Socialism or a curse of Communism, will have a rational and permanent solution.

Jesus said that the purpose of the Gospel was to be salt to society. Salt keeps substances from becoming putrid. The rottenness which is festering in the flesh of America will be cured, if indeed it is ever cured, only by the faithful application of the salt of the Gospel.

Preachers! Laymen! I call upon you! I call upon you to begin right now, where you are, with determination to do your part in generating the fires of a sweeping revival! I call upon you to use every talent, and to redeem every opportunity within your reach, to help percipitate a great spiritual awakening!

Over two thousand five hundred years ago, a Prophet by the name of Daniel described the deterioration of the Gentile governments, concerning which history bears abundant record. The Prophet's utterance was based upon a huge Image which he saw in a vision. He said it had a head of gold, a breast of silver, thighs of brass, legs of iron, and feet of iron and clay.

The head of gold was Babylon, the breast of silver was the Medo-Persian Empire, the thighs of brass represented ancient Greece, the legs of iron were Rome and the Holy Roman Empire, and certainly we are now down in the feet of the Image. The substances are iron and clay. History has moved the Gentile nations from gold, through the baser elements, until now we are down in a weak mixture of iron mingled with clay.

But, even considering the national weakness predicted by Daniel, I propose, by the Grace of God, to be one who will do his utmost to keep the North American continent, the best, safest, and holiest place in the world to live.

The Prophet continued: he said he saw a stone "carved out of the mountain" without hands, which fell and smote the feet of the Image. The Image, representing the Gentile governments of the world, collapsed, and the stone grew to be a mighty mountain that filled the whole earth. That falling Stone represents Jesus Christ in His triumphant Second Coming, which ere long will substitute the government of God for the governments of men.

Objections to Deluge Geology Answered

By Dudley Joseph Whitney, Exeter, California

(Editor's Note: In the May Defender, Mr. Whitney offered some scientific reasons for believing that the fossils in the rocks were placed there by a sudden earth shock which could have been nothing other than The Deluge. In June, Mr. Douglas Dewar, an English scientist who also rejects the theory of Evolution, answered him and presented his reasons for believing that the condition of the rocks can be accounted for only by long geological periods. This month, Mr. Whitney seeks to answer the answer.)

AT LAST, objections have been presented to the theory that the Deluge spoken of in Genesis is responsible for the sedimentary rocks and the fossils therein. We advocates of Deluge geology, George McCreedy Price, Byron C. Nelson, others and myself have been presenting for years, what seem to us the finest possible evidences for the system of Genesis geological history; a system that seems truly scientific and one that accords completely with the simple, natural Bible account. The evolutionary geologists have scorned our position without facing the issue, and the Christian theologians, as a rule, have been ignoring our case, because the geologists have said with disdain that we were so wrong that we were not worthy of attention.

Mr. Dewar, however, a scientist and a firm believer in the Scriptures, has had the courage to face this issue. Seeing, as he believes, serious weaknesses in our position, he presents his objections to our ideas.

This we approve; we want our case to be overthrown, if it is wrong. If it is not wrong, however, we want it to be accepted, for we are helpless if the scholars, so called, say we are wrong without knowing our case or meeting it. We therefore hope that all readers who have held to "ages creation" or the theory of ages followed by a pre-Adamic ruin, or something of the sort, because they thought that scholarship demanded a belief in these ages, will now study the case presented by Mr. Dewar and myself according to the facts.

Positive Reasons for Deluge Geology

In the first place Professor Price, Mr. Nelson and myself do not adopt this theory that the Deluge was responsible for the rocks simply because we find too many flaws in the evolutionist's theory of geological ages. The theory of geological ages was taught us in school and it is now given to the public as a fact. Obviously we can not present Deluge geology to the public unless we first show that the teachings of the geologists are wrong. Consequently the major part of our work must be to show how wrong the standard geological theory is.

Please get the significance of this, you who believe that you must accept geological age "days" of creation, or standard geological theory: the facts show that this theory is wrong. Thus far, therefore, the only alternative to the theory that the Deluge was responsible for the fossils, which has any standing, ought to be rejected. If you cannot accept Deluge geology you at least have to admit that you know nothing else which can explain those fossils.

Having of necessity discredited ages geology, we do not stop there: we give positive reasons for believing that the Deluge was responsible for the fossils. I did this at length in my first paper. Why Mr. Dewar overlooked this I cannot understand. Here is a brief outline of the case.

There was a great Deluge, so great that it kept Noah in the Ark for a full

The Bible and Science

By Rev. W. A. Ayres, Wichita, Kansas

The True and the False

THERE has been much that was true and much that was false in science ever since its beginning. The false was not the fault of science; the ignorance of man has been to blame. For a thousand years at one time in the world's history science taught that the sun went round the earth, and so rose in the East and set in the West literally. Of course this was only a mistake that has been corrected. Perhaps it did no harm while it was held as truth. Man has always made mistakes. It is this feature that largely distinguishes man from the lower animals. Man corrects his mistakes and goes on to improvement and progress. Animals make no mistakes, but they make no progress. Nobody ever saw a bird sitting in a deep study how to build its nest, though it may never have built one before, or ever seen one built.

Science once taught that life came by spontaneous generation, but it does so no more; it has learned better. If I had time and space it would be easy to show that science is a graveyard of dead dogmas. Yet this is no reason why we should ridicule, deride or laugh at it. This was necessary. There was no way to arrive at its truths but by making many mistakes at first. The Creator didn't see fit to give us a written revelation of scientific truth as he has of religious truth. Yet in spite of many mistakes, some of them harmful, as we shall see, science has given us a thousand helpful truths.

With the Bible it has been quite different. While in the earlier years there were a hundred or more Apocryphal books, false and not true; today, and for nearly 2,000 years, we have had a book of absolute truth without any change. Man has not had to search it out, or dig it up; God has given it to us, the greatest and best Book in the world! All true science and the Bible are in perfect harmony. It is only false science that differs from the Bible. A right study of God's two books, the Bible and Nature (or science) will show clearly the beautiful agreement of both. And God being the Author of both, it could not be otherwise. Next month: "The Bible Is Science."

DEFENDER BOOK DEPARTMENT

BRITISH-ISRAELISM. By Fredrick A. Tatford. Published by John Richey, Ltd. Pages 48. Price 35 cents.

Since the Anglo-Israel concept deals primarily with the British it is fitting to hear from Mr. Tatford who is a well known English writer. He says in his Foreword of this book, "The danger of British-Israelism really lies in its careless (if not deliberate) wrenching of Scripture from its context and subjecting the Word to painful, misconstruction and misguided exegesis." He points out that because the system provides no plan of salvation, "removes the cross and appeals to the patriotism of the individual, the theory is gaining hold, but there is much Scripture that plainly demonstrates that it is without Biblical support."

The purpose of this book is to establish the fact that the main arguments of the cult are based on easily disproved assertions. No unbiased inquirer can read this demolishing exposure of the contortion of history and Scripture without being profoundly impressed. Certainly the British-Israelites cannot say that they believe the Bible from cover to cover. The treatise insists that they are reading the Scriptures through the colored spectacles of their peculiar theory.

The Author is to be congratulated upon the courteous and constructive language which he has employed in his effort to show that the sect fails utterly to measure up to the standards of plain Scripture and exact history. While his argument is, of course negative, yet he has not allowed himself to become bitter or vindictive. Any one who may be making a study of British-Israelism or is puzzled as to its worth, will do well to examine what Mr. Tatford has written.

THE PROPHETIC LAMP. By Ernest Baker. Published by Pickering and Inglis. Pages 79. Price 40 cents.

The Reader will have spread before him a vast array of prophetic material concerning Christ, Israel, the nations, and the Church. A number of different prophecies are considered and their fulfillments are noted. The plain utterances concerning Tyre and Sidon, Egypt and other countries are indicated and their fulfillment described in detail.

The title to this book was chosen from Peter's statement "We have the word of prophecy more sure. . . . a lamp shining in a dark place".

DANIEL'S GREAT PROPHECY. By Nathaniel West. Published by The London "Prophetic News". Pages 190. Price 75 cents.

Dr. West is well known as a learned, critical and sagacious English author. He treats the book of Daniel at great length and interprets its prophetic contents in the light of recorded history. He shows how much has already been fulfilled and calls attention to the remaining portions yet to come to pass. Daniel's prophecy was written to prefigure in outline, the course of history from the Babylonian exile of the Children of Israel, down through the ages to the Second Coming of Christ. It also dwells upon the coming reign of millennial glory.

Daniel covers that interesting period of prophetic history known as "the times of the Gentiles," "the seventieth week of Daniel," and the period described as "the time of the end." Step by step the Author takes the Reader through Daniel's entire document. There is a depth of thought in these pages which challenges one to profound study. It is in no sense a shallow or surfaceful production. Let the Reader be prepared to "dig deep" when he begins to read. This is the kind of a book that strengthens the prophetic muscles of the soul.

RUSSIA'S CRUSHING DEFEAT. By A. H. Burton. Published by The "Advent Witness." Pages 24. Price 35 cents.

The Editor-Author of this brochure sees a horrible Red cloud looming on the horizon. He records the latest developments as to the policies of Soviet Russia, showing how the Communistic system is devoted to the perpetuation of world-wide revolution. He explains how the Reds are arming for war with the avowed objective of tearing down all nations and creating a universal empire with headquarters in Moscow. But what is more significant is the fact that all of this can be shown to fit with Ezekiel's scheme of prophecy.

We read of the "Final Invasion of Europe," "the Far Eastern Peril," "Two Great Leagues of Nations," "the Great River Euphrates," "the King of the North," "Literal Armageddon," etc. etc.

THE APPOINTED TIME. By F. D. Frost. Published by Pickering and Inglis. Pages 108. Price 50 cents.

Dr. Frost is a brigadier-general in the English army. The present Review Editor is so profoundly impressed with the contents of this volume that he wants every Defender Reader to have a comprehensive outline of its contents. He is therefore giving the title headings of the fifteen chapters: The Present World Crisis, The Course of the World's Disease, The World's Effort to Cure Itself, The False Doctor Who Desires the Death of the Patient, False Prescriptions or Theories about the Second Advent, The Hope of the Church, The Old Testament and the Second Coming, The History of the Jews, The Anti-God Confederacy, Rise and Fall of the Great Gentile Empires, The United States of Europe, The British Empire and the Bible, New Testament Signs of Christ's Coming, Scientists and Bible Prophecy, and The Coming Roman Prince.

A valuable feature of General Frost's work is a large map of the Roman Empire which is bound in the center of the book, showing the territory which must be revived and broken into ten nations according to Daniel's prophecy. He shows how this breaking process is now going on. He also offers a dispensational chart entitled "The Judgments." We heartily commend this book to every truth-seeker who may be attempting to understand the present catastrophic events and world movements in the light of fulfilled prophecy. Nothing more comprehensive is available for the price and number of pages.

DOES GOD HEAL THE BODY TODAY? By C. H. Jack Linn. Published by Hallelujah Print Shop. Pages 114. Price 75 cents.

The Introduction of this book is characteristic of the dynamic Evangelist who wrote it. He says:

"This book has not been written. It has been compiled. The style, diction, arrangement, etc., is all to which we lay claim. The contents have been gathered from many sources. To tell where and how we have procured the material would be a difficult task; it has come from many places, covering a period of time. We give due and proper thanks for every reply."

"The aim of the book is to glorify God in that many shall find healing for their bodies and blessings to their souls."

"We are not unmindful of the severe criticism which is abroad in reference to our subject—sometimes from most devout Christians."

"However, we have written and compiled as the Great Physician has directed, and we dare trust Him to accomplish His desired ends."

"Blessings upon every reader."

"C. H. Jack Linn"

The central theme of "Does God Heal the Body Today?" is Jesus Christ. It is designed to take the Reader's eyes off the flesh and to focus them upon the Saviour. There are twelve chapters in the book and the one on "Hindrances to Divine Healing" is particularly

The Tender Heart Throb of the Master

By Miss Katherine Beard, Wichita, Kansas

JESUS appeared to His disciples after they had fished all night catching nothing, and in His gentle manner directed them to cast their nets on the right side of the ship. They obeyed and were successful. Obedience brought results, for "they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes."

"Come and dine," we hear the Master saying. A fire of coals is burning, and the odor of fish scents the atmosphere. Quietly the food is eaten. Finally, Jesus breaks the silence with the words of our meditation: (John 21: 15-19)

"Lovest thou Me?"

It is Peter to whom He is speaking. Great, blundering, impulsive Peter; the one who so recently denied he ever knew the Christ Who bought him, but afterwards repented and wept bitterly. He would test him. Peter makes a threefold confession for his previous threefold denial.

"Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these?"

Jesus is pleading for a higher love, a love that puts God first.

"Lovest thou Me more than these?"

"More than what, Lord?"

"Do you love Me more than these nets? Do you love Me more than your labors here by the seashore? More than these friends with whom you have comradeship day by day? More than worldly possessions of every sort? Peter, do you really esteem Me higher than anyone or anything else in the world? Am I more precious to you, Peter, than the things of the world?"

Christ wanted more than a mere human, emotional, spasmodical love. He desired a deep, abiding love from the heart and will.

He speaks again, "Lovest thou me?" Do you love me more than the allurements of the world? Am I more precious than the frivolous things of life to you? Peter answers, "Yea Lord, thou knowest that I love thee." A third time the question comes with a voice of love entreating, "Peter, lovest thou Me?" This time, poor Peter's heart is almost bursting with grief to think that the Lord does not trust him. With heart fluttering, and voice wavering, Peter replies, "Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee."

Each time when Peter assures Christ of his love for Him, He is exhorted to "feed my sheep." There is no greater calling, no higher aspiration than to help save the lost. It was God's love for the lost that sent our Lord to this world. And Jesus would have His disciples feel something of the same heart throb.

The fields are white unto harvest.
Who will help to gather them in?
The Master has need of labourers
To save His people from sin.

"Lovest thou me" was the highest test of devotion; and today, after almost two thousand years, we may still look upon this as a test for our spiritual lives. There are three ways we may test ourselves on this particular point. First, there is a test of comradeship. In Matthew 16:24 we read, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me." Notice carefully—let him deny "self". He does not intend for us to deny ourselves of the good things of life; on the contrary, when we really yield to the Lord in the death to self, and realize ourselves to be "crucified with Christ", we begin to enjoy this life more abundantly.

"Lovest thou Me?"—"Feed my lambs." There is no creed or church formula to accept because "Lovest thou me" embraces it all. Throughout all these years Christ has been calling men and women to Him—not by force, not by duty, but by love. Thousands of young people today are church members who have no personal love for Christ. To be true to the fundamentals of the Faith is important, I grant you, but this does not prove that we are true at heart to Jesus. I believe it is possible even to become a martyr to the Faith, and yet not truly, deeply, feelingly love Christ. Paul must have had this in mind when he said: "Though I give my body to be burned and have not love, it profiteth me nothing."

Katherine Beard

Second, there is a test of conduct. If there is true love there will be no question as to our conduct; we will want to please our Lord. We will commune much with "Christ Within." And when the within is in perfect adjustment to Him, the outer life will conform accordingly. He will prompt our actions without. The world can not help but know that we have been with Jesus. Christian character is not something we do; it is something He does for, and through us.

When I was labouring in the mission fields of northern Minnesota, it was not difficult to discriminate between those that had a real love and vital desire for Christ, and those who had only a "form of godliness denying the power thereof." They invariably showed it by their conduct. Allow me to compare two of the communities that I served in regard to this.

One was a very poor neighborhood on the prairies of Minnesota. There I lived in a little tin school house depending entirely on the Lord to supply my needs. In spite of the fact that the surrounding homes were in extreme poverty, often from a family of seven being couped up in a one room shack, I received "exceeding abundantly above all that I asked or thought." They concerned themselves about the needs of the missionary. Regardless of the hard days of toll, evening found these precious people at the House of worship, hungry to be fed with the Bread of Life. No matter the heat of the summer or the bitter cold of winter I say, these people showed by their conduct, a love for Christ.

While on the contrary, I recall another community which was much more prosperous materially; a people who were not in want, and who could have easily supported a missionary had their hearts been open to the Gospel! But because they did not esteem Christ higher than the world, His servants suffered at their hands. Our food consisted mostly of fat pork. Our offerings were very meager. Our protection was without assurance. Persecution came from those who professed to know Him. Their conduct did not manifest love.

Finally, "Lovest thou Me?" becomes the greatest test for A Separate Life. The follower of the Lord does not serve his Master from any sense of duty. The Scripture exhorts us to serve the Lord with all our heart, and this can only be done by a separate life. No man can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. A divided life can not be a victorious life. Certainly not to oneself, and most assuredly to no one else. If we are mingling in the world and in sin, we must of necessity be separated from God. Isaiah says: "Behold your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you." Let us rather seek to be separate unto the Lord. We are called to be a separate people. Love again becomes the test, for only true love is willing to separate from sin, self, and Satan. In the church at Antioch it was the Holy Ghost Who said "Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work where unto I have called them." Just so, everyone going out into Christian service must be separated by the Holy Ghost if he would demonstrate spiritual power.

I am reminded of the story of an old negro boatman, a slave, who had great love for his master. One day while rowing a traveler down the river, suddenly he dropped his oars, stood up in the boat and shouted, "Der'es de capt'n! Der'es de capt'n! Don't you see him comin' down the river?" The traveler was perplexed because of the old negro's actions and demanded an explanation. The slave related how the captain had rescued him from a watery grave. His appreciation was so deep that he wanted to serve the man as slave. He said, "I jes' love to slave for him. I jes' love to pint him out to others. Ain't he got the kindest face you ever did see?"

We have One Who rescued us from a grave of sin and iniquity. The Captain of our salvation is Jesus Christ Who went through the waters of death for us. We ought to love to slave for Him; we should love to "point" Him out to others. Paul said, "He loved me and year and stranded the Ark on mountains thousands of feet high. The amount of disturbance to the face of the earth from such a Deluge must have been enormous; the mountain upon which the Ark rested must have been, in fact, largely composed of material laid down by the Deluge, because it was not a mountain before the Deluge, but was uplifted during and after the Deluge. I pointed out the universally admitted fact that the highest mountain masses are composed of recently uplifted material. This certainly is a positive reason for believing that most sedimentary rock and the fossils in them, must have resulted from the Deluge.

Going on from there, two other fundamental facts exist, plus numerous minor facts, most of which have not been mentioned: the sedimentary rocks show prominent signs of having been formed, in large part at least, violently, or quickly. The presence of fish fossils in enormous amounts, and other fossils indicate this; the fact that coal beds were formed quickly; that the material from which our petroleum came must have been buried before decay; all of these indicate quick, violent formation of many of the rocks.

And then, if they were formed in different periods, even though such periods followed one another quickly—in thousands rather than millions of years—there would be a true sequence to the fossils. There is no such sequence; rock of the so-called age of mammals is above rock of the so-called age of reptiles one place and under it in another place, and so for the other ages. This means conclusively, sedimentary rock (save the recent) must have been deposited in one age; then if the rock came at least in large part by violence as a Deluge demands, and if the Deluge formed much of the rock, and if the mountains were at least mostly uplifted during and after the Deluge; positive reasons certainly exist for believing that the fossils came by the Deluge; they are primarily the remains of plants and animals existing on the antediluvian earth when the Deluge occurred.

The Time of Creation

Mr. Dewar refers to the frequent belief that Genesis teaches that the earth, sun, moon and stars were created only about 6,000 years ago. Well, common belief does not make Genesis teach this; a fact that is emphasized time and time again. The first few verses of Genesis indicate clearly that the earth and the heavens were in existence before the six days of "creation" began. Genesis neither says nor suggests when the Creator brought them into existence. A misunderstanding of Genesis is the fault, not of Genesis, but of its readers. The six days' creation was an ordering of the earth and the creation of plants, animals and men. Of course, plants and animals being then created were not created during millions of years, but this has no bearing on the time of creation of the heavenly bodies or of the substance composing the earth.

The matter of translations as affecting our understanding of the account deserves attention. Genesis was translated by scholars who can be supposed to have given us God's meaning with not more than a few minor differences at the most. Take the simple direct account as the reader of the English will understand it, and it will be found to be in essentials the same as Josephus understood it, and Josephus was a Jewish priest, living in the time of our Lord, knowing the Scriptures thoroughly, being also a noted scholar of his day. We simply cannot beg off understanding Genesis on the excuse of faulty translation when we find that Josephus understood Genesis just as we should understand the authorized version. Josephus accepted literal creation of plants, animals and men. He took the days of creation as literal days and, by the same token, he had only one creation of man, though Mr. Dewar seems to want to favor two creations of man, so as to get in a pre-Adamic ruin. That question can be considered now.

The creation of man described in the first chapter of Genesis, was a being created in the image of God and was to have dominion over other living things. Surely he must have been as real a man as Adam, which is to say the man of Genesis, first chapter, must have been Adam. Eve, too, was called the mother of all living, which would not be true if there were numerous men before Adam. Paul calls Adam the first man. Genesis II evidently (and naturally) gives details of the creation which was outlined in Genesis I. To try to make two creations out of this and to get two races of men, one from each chapter, is forcing the record to say what only hair splitting can make it say. The Scriptures from the beginning have been persecuted by scholars finding in them what no one could see or would ever understand by taking the account in a simple, natural way.

The Way to Decide the Matter

Lack of space if nothing else would prevent a detailed answer to all the geological difficulties which Mr. Dewar brings up, but certainly a way to reach a decision on the problem can be found if careful reasoning is followed. As I pointed out, the fossils are there and the fact that we cannot understand the details of their deposit does not make them vanish; they are there just the same.

An almost fundamental feature in reasoning must be a decision whether fossils, with some exceptions of course, came by violent, quick deposit, or by gradual accumulation, such as occurs now. The theory of ages assumes gradual accumulation; Mr. Dewar seems to do so also. He refers to fishes burying themselves in mud as the streams or ponds where they lived dried up, and suggests that fish fossils generally were formed in this way. Obviously they were not.

I urge doubters to read Price's discussion of this in detail. Then think of these things: 1. Most fishes would not bury themselves in mud, but would die and decay, or birds would consume them. 2. Salt water fishes are found fossil in abundance, and arms of the ocean are not going to dry up frequently enough to provide fish fossils. Fishes need sediment to cover them or they will not fossilize, and an excess of water rather than drouth is what larly striking, to say nothing of the value of chapter eight, "Is Satan the Author and Cause of all Sickness?" and chapter twelve which gives a series of forty-eight testimonials of healing in answer to prayer; the forty-eight testimonials have to do with deliverance from forty-eight different kinds of disease.

THE GIRL WHO FOUND HERSELF. By C. H. Jack Linn. Published by Hallelujah Print Shop. Pages 78. Price 50 cents.

This is an old fashioned Gospel story. A beautiful piece of Christian fiction! Helen Golden is her name, she was a society lioness who flitted through many adventures into sins of one kind and another. Eventually she came to a camp meeting and the story of her transformation is indeed a thrilling tale.

FLIRTING WITH THE DEVIL. By C. H. Jack Linn. Published by Hallelujah Print Shop. Pages 47. Price 25 cents.

"Hit 'em again, Jack, we are for you!" . . . With sledge-hammer blows the Evangelist-Author hammers the movies, the dance and the card tables. He believes that these evils are resulting in incalculable wrong. He opposes their assaults upon the moral standards of the present generation of young people. He thinks that the best way to destroy an evil is to unmask it so that its hideousness can be seen by every one. This is the kind of an evangelistic sermon that plows the soul and puts restraint upon the conscience.

But alas, the modern preaching of many evangelists and ministers has been so weakened by negation and compromise that we seldom come upon sermons of this kind!

Missionary Reports From: The West Indies, West Africa, the Yaqui Indians, and the Jewish Defenders Messianic Testimony.

Spanish Defenders Campaigning For God In The West Indies.

SPANISH DEFENDERS are engaged in a real Gospel Crusade. The campaign started when The Winrods visited Puerto Rico late in 1931. But the battle-field comprises all Spanish lands!

Providentially, this vision has dawned upon many souls who are sending us Macedonian calls from nations where our efforts are known through the printed page. By the printed page we mean, among other literature, El Defensor Hispano, (The Spanish Defender).

The great Mexican Christian Journalist, Rev. A. B. Carrero, writes as follows: "I like your magazine and join heartily your efforts in behalf of the Fundamental Doctrines of Christianity. El Defensor Hispano has a great task to accomplish. I know of no other Spanish magazine that may meet the great need now felt in Spanish Evangelical ranks. All our magazines are modernistic and consequently faulty in doctrine. . . Only El Defensor Hispano comes full of truth, earnestness and faith, feeding believers with inspiration and courage for the battle."

Mr. Carrero's tribute is representative of the letters that come from unevangelized lands where the evangelistic message of the Spanish Defenders leads many souls into the way of Life. Our double project it to defend, and spread the Faith.

Another channel of ministry now developing is Colportage Work. A Colporter-Evangelist among us is a consecrated soul-winner who dedicates time to canvassing with the Bible, sound tracts, and books. Two of these workers are now giving their full time to this needed service. They are trained Christian workers and solicit our fellowship as they go about holding meetings in the most destitute places and suffering from all kinds of difficulties.

Previously, I wrote about Spanish Defenders being on the air over Puerto Rico's broadcasting station located in San Juan. I now gladly add that arrangements have been made to broadcast from Santo Domingo during my coming evangelistic campaign in the Dominican Republic.

The above picture was taken in front of the Defenders Tabernacle in Guayama, Puerto Rico. It shows some of the trained Christian laymen who are engaged in giving out the Gospel to their own people.

In closing this informal report allow me to submit that our Tabernacle, Chapel, Publishing and Evangelistic enterprises are prospering under God's gracious blessing. You, good United States Defenders, will meet in Heaven, Friends of other languages, who are being acquainted with Saving Grace, through your sacrificial generosity. It is your regular giving and praying that enables us to go forward in this unique work of God.

When "Judas" Exploded

By Rev. Leonard Mercado
Phoenix, Arizona

Our Defender preacher, Brother Jose, the M'ya Indian who was so wonderfully converted last year, has returned to one of the Yaqui Indian camps here in Arizona. He is continuing his faithful ministry conducting services in his poor, humble shack. Quite a few of the Yaqui gather in his home regularly and he unfolds the Scriptures. His testimony is bearing fruit.

Our souls were delighted last Sunday night when two Yaqui Indians, husband and wife, who have been hearing the Gospel out on the reservation, came into our meeting here in the Mexican district of Phoenix and accepted Christ as their personal Saviour. These are among the first fruits of the Defenders Yaqui Indian Testimony.

No doubt, every one read in the newspapers about the terrible tragedy that befell the Yaqui in their last Easter festival. The hideous dummy known as "Judas" which is annually paraded through the camps as a part of their pagan ceremony, exploded this year because more powder was used than necessary. One child was killed and another badly burned as a result of the accident. Some of the "fariseos" were mean enough to try to blame our Jose for the misfortune, saying that he was a Protestant and had, therefore, brought a curse. The Chief, however, and some of our friends, came to Jose's rescue and he was defended from harm. His simple statement was: "If I die because of my love for Jesus I am ready. But, don't forget to pray for these people."

Lent and Easter are the only times that the Yaqui remember about their religion. They have a great celebration and the practices are a combination of perverted Romish and heathenish, pagan ceremonies. I had to sacrifice my usual opportunity to preach to them in the Mexican tongue, on Sunday afternoons until ceremonies were over. But I went out to the camp as is my custom.

Soon after arriving, I heard the very weird music of a flute and a drum. I looked across to the other side of the camp and saw a procession of the "fariseos". Leading the march were two lines of about fifteen or twenty men, each. The groups carried flags, one blue and the other red. Behind the two flag-men came the others carrying the precious "Saint", or idol. It was a distorted image but it was precious to them. The other men were all carrying swords or musical devices. At this time "Judas" was impersonated as a man, dressed in the head of an animal, which he wore like a mask. He was a horrible looking creature.

In their Easter ceremonies, "Judas" is always a trouble-maker. I watched him as he went all around the camp and tried to disturb the worshippers. The two processions of men stopped in front of every shack. Each time they paused, the idol was placed on a box and every one fell down in front of it, to do worship. The family would then come out of the shack and give gifts to the "fariseos" which would usually consist of a cup of beans, a little flour, a few onions, or anything that the poor people could give in the way of an offering to gain the favor of the gods.

At another time during the ceremonies, "Judas" was impersonated as a dummy. One of the annual features of the heathenish practice is the act of blowing this dummy to pieces. It was this explosion that killed the child to which I referred in the beginning. After observing these practices again this year, we were impressed greater than ever, with the importance of giving these poor people the true Gospel. We are confident that before another Easter time comes around, there will be a large group of these Indians who will understand the truth of the Scriptures.

It was pathetic to hear the Chief explain why they idolize the cross in their religious observances. He said: "We came from the earth. The earth is our Mother God. Jesus is the son of this Mother earth. The earth became a tree and when Christ died on the tree, it was God embracing the Son." We are going to have the Chief explain to us more about their beliefs in the future. Meanwhile,

A beautiful Highway in Puerto Rico.

THE RUSSIAN AND SPANISH OUTLOOK

Edited by Oswald J. Smith
Pastor of the Toronto Gospel Tabernacle and Director of Russian and Spanish Missions
Office: 22 Kendal Ave., Toronto, Canada.

Monks and Nuns

By Oswald J. Smith

A REPORT has just been received from Madrid, Spain, stating that more than 500,000 Spanish children have been released from Catholic education, following a law which prohibits monks and nuns from engaging in teaching.

This means that 80,000 monks and nuns will be ousted as teachers before the end of the present year.

Property and treasures of the church valued at $500,000,000 are seized by the Government under the measure which claps a band on religious orders by forbidding them to function.

By an overwhelming vote of 278 to 50, republicans in the legislature gagged all opposition to force through their program embodying restrictions of church activity.

The new bill is far more sweeping than steps taken for limitation of the Church under the former monarchy.

As for the monks and nuns, they are left without lawful religious activity. The government plans to take measures aiding them to renounce their vows.

Thus things are heading up in a most remarkable way in Spain. Who could have foreseen such a revolutionary step when I first visited the country back in 1929? At that time Roman Catholicism was in full power. Rome had the upper hand. The priests were supreme. Spain was governed by the Jesuits. Missionaries worked in fear and trembling. Their very lives were in danger. Meetings had to be held, to a large extent, in secret. Freedom was unknown.

Today all is changed. The Jesuits have been driven out. The king has gone. The State is supreme. Protestantism is protected and has full liberty. Meetings of any size can be held. None are molested. And now according to the above report the whole of the educational system is to be changed. Secular training will no longer be controlled by the Catholics. Spanish children are to be set free. Think of it, 80,000 nuns and priests ousted. What a deliverance!

We did not foresee these momentous changes, but God did. And he led us to found a Bible School in Spain, place a Dean in charge, train evangelists. And now they are ready, and for over three years they have been preaching the Gospel. Everywhere souls are being saved. Thousands are hearing the Good News. Churches are springing up. Huge bull rings are being used for evangelistic meetings. Audiences of 2,000 and more have been gathered to hear the Message. Thus Spain is being evangelized. What an opportunity!

Rev. F. David Sholin and his wife have accomplished a glorious work already. Mr. Sholin is the Dean of the Bible School. Both speak Spanish fluently. We would invoke the prayers of God's people upon their labors. Let us not forget them. Spain's pagan night has ended. The dawn has broken. It is now our privilege to take advantage of the opportunity presented, so that it may at last be true in Spain as elsewhere, "the blood of the martyrs the seed of the church".

It will be of interest to the Readers of this Department to learn that the contributions made on Sunday, May 28th, the closing day of our Annual Missionary Convention in the Toronto Gospel Tabernacle, amounted to over $22,000 for which we devoutly praise God.

Perhaps most important of all was the offering of life. More than 75 young people stood to their feet signifying their willingness to become missionaries. And as the song "When He Calls me I will Answer" was sung, hundreds of hearts were deeply stirred.

The auditorium seating 1,500 was packed beyond capacity. Many scores were compelled to stand throughout the service. The vestibules were crowded.

One of the most interesting features of the offering was the gifts by telephone. For some forty-five minutes the phone rang incessantly and over 50 gifts were received, so that the calls averaged more than one a minute. There was great excitement as the 'phone gifts came in. Many finding the line busy, gave up and 'phoned their gifts next day.

Our missionary work is increasing, inasmuch as we are planning to assist in the evangelization of the Isle of Bali in the Dutch East Indies. This in addition to our present obligation for the Soviet Border of Russia, the Russian refugees of France, and Spain! We are also supporting Miss Helen Hooper in Ethiopia. The Jewish work in Toronto is being continued.

Our hearts greatly rejoiced when we read in the report for 1932 submitted by Pastor J. Kurcit, our Superintendent, that on one of our fields, namely, the Soviet Border of Russia, no less than 1,076 souls were definitely saved during the year. Surely the investment of money and effort has been abundantly worth while. How we ought to thank God for this manifestation of His favor and blessing! The prayers of the great Defender Family are earnestly solicited.

The House Inside

I have a house inside of me,
A house that people never see;
It has a door through which none pass,
And windows, but they're not of glass.

Sometimes I like to go inside,
And hide and hide and hide and hide,
And doctor up my wounded pride,
When I've been treated rough outside.

And sometimes when I've been to blame
I go inside and blush for shame,
And get my mind in better frame,
And get my tongue and temper same.

I meet my heavenly Father there,
For He stoops down to hear my prayer,
To heal my wounds, and cure my care,
And make me strong to do and dare.

Then after I am made quite strong
And things are right that were all wrong,
I go outside, where I belong,
And sing a new and happy song.

And then I hear the people say
"You're blithe and bonny, good and gay",
And it's because I feel that way,
But they don't know the price I pay.

You have a house inside of you,
Where you can fight your battles
through,
And God will show you what to do,
And make your heart both strong and true.

we beg for the prayers of the great Defender Family for these benighted souls for whom Christ died.

The work of the Mexican Mission in Phoenix is prospering. Last week it was my privilege to speak to the prisoners of the State Prison of Florence, Arizona. I spoke three times in two days. I have been helping the Board of Pardons and Paroles for the last year, in dealing with Mexican prisoners. On the occasion of my last visit, two Yaqui Indian boys in whom I was exceptionally interested, because of having contacted their lives at the camp, were paroled on my recommendation. There were also forty-four Mexicans waiting to be taken back to the Mexican territory. I was asked to tell them the Gospel story. They were called by the guards into one of the cell houses. When I told them what God had helped me do for them, and what He expected of them in returning to Mexico, some wept, others clapped their hands, and more cheered heartily. Then I pointed them to that higher pardon, Jesus Christ, as Saviour from sin.

(NOTE: The Defenders Movement seeks to send $25.00 per month to help with the work of Yaqui evangelization. We were unable to send this amount last month but we dare to believe that Defender Friends will be inspired to cooperate more generously, now that Mr. Mercado has placed the need before us in such a comprehensive and challenging manner. No matter whether a gift be large or small, it will be thankfully received.)

Evangelism Among the Kru

Encouraging reports come regularly from Paul Nyecka Revere, the trained African missionary who has gone back to his people, the Kru, of Liberia, West Africa.

Paul's ministry is the obvious answer to the prayers of Sammy Morris, that remarkable Kru boy who made his way to the United States many years ago and attracted such wide attention among the Christian people of the nation. Sammy was attending a Bible School in Fort Wayne, Indiana, preparing himself to return to his people, when during a cold winter he contracted pneumonia and died. He left the body virtually praying that God would deliver the Kru tribes from their savagery and cannibalism.

The gifts of Defender Readers made it possible for Paul to return to the Kru after having devoted more than eight years to special missionary training in the United States. He acquired his knowledge of the Bible and soul winning by attending the Practical Bible Training School of Binghamton, New York. He has a real passion for the lost and is a great missionary-preacher to his people.

In a letter dated May 2nd Paul says: "By the time this letter is received, I will be in the midst of my evangelistic work. I have planned and prayed everything out. I am taking four dependable young men with me to put in stations which will be opened by our evangelistic preaching in the interior. I am leaving another young man here in Krutown, to take care of the results from recent preaching and to handle things at headquarters until I return. We face this task, going forward with encouraged hearts, because we know that so many Defender Friends are praying for us."

moves sediment. 3. Look in Osborn's, "The Origin and Evolution of Life" and see the cut of some ostracoderm (fish) fossils, which Osborn says were evidently buried while swimming against the stream. That is not burying themselves in the mud because the water dries up. And what about the organisms which formed the petroleum? Were they buried gradually? Were the coal plants a gradual accumulation, or washed into place? Catastrophe—violent deposit and movement of sediment formed them! Mr. Dewar believes in lots of Flood; he refers to Howorth's unanswerable case that "glacial drift" is not glacial, but Deluge formed. Inevitably the conglomeration of the Karroo beds of South Africa, to which Mr. Dewar refers, must have been formed in the same way, that is, by a Flood.

The Mechanics of Geology

And now in closing, one fundamentally important point can be mentioned. Mr. Dewar briefly states in closing that he has not studied the mechanics of geological theory, but until the mechanics of the case are understood, geological theory is absurd; it would be like trying to do examples in algebra without knowing simple arithmetic.

Furthermore, although the geologists glide over the question of earth mechanics they mention certain perfectly admitted facts frequently. These are: The earth is far cooler than was formerly believed; it is more rigid than a ball of steel; it is not cooling nor shrinking, at least to any material degree. Consequently there is no known agency to make the crust go up and down the way geological theory demands, or even as Mr. Dewar's theories demand. Instead the facts are directly against this, therefore standard geological theory is bad science. Also, any honest geologist will admit that geological theories were based upon the idea that the earth was cooling rapidly and shrinking rapidly. As long as it is doing neither, geologists are simply inexcusable for promulgating their theories now. Nothing but the Noachian Deluge has any real scientific standing as the cause of the fossils; the direct Genesis account of creation and the Deluge should be believed.
